

Angling in Ireland's Eastern Region

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Whether a coarse, game, or sea angler, Ireland's eastern counties of Cavan, Monaghan, Louth, Meath, Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, and Wexford offer superb opportunities to fish within beautiful unspoilt locations...

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

It is possible for tourist anglers to be fishing within one hour of disembarking from any of the main ports of Dublin, Dunlaoghaire, or Rosslare.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Game anglers can fish for wild Trout in mountain streams, lowland rivers, and on a variety of lakes.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Pike anglers are well catered for and the fishing is wonderful, particularly in the north east counties of Cavan and Monaghan.

Whether trolling, dead baiting, or jerk fishing a nine kilo plus fish is always on the cards, with the average weight of Pike running four – five kilos.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

There are a number of professional Pike & Trout Angling guides in the north east counties. They are fully equipped to include boats, fish finders, and tackle. Check out www.fishingireland.net for a full listing.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

The shallow inshore coastal waters of the east and south east are home to a variety of species, with pride of place going to the Bass.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

SEAi (South East Angling Ireland) is a dedicated guiding service specialising in lure and fly fishing for Bass along the south coast.

www.bassfishing.ie

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Other species to expect off the Wicklow and Wexford beaches are Smooth Hound, Flatfish, Dogfish, Codling, Coalfish, and Whiting.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Kilmore Quay on the south coast of Wexford is home to a number of first rate charter vessels which fish the reefs and wrecks in the area.

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

For a weekend break or a more extended stay, Ireland's Eastern region has angling opportunities to satisfy all expectations...

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

For further information please contact the
Eastern Regional Fisheries Board.

15A Main St.
Blackrock
Co. Dublin
Ireland

www.fishingireland.net

Tel: +353 1 2787022

Ashley Hayden
Marketing Coordinator, Angling
ashley.hayden@erfb.ie

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir

Copyright reserved

© 2008 ERFB

Images courtesy of Ashley Hayden © 2008

Eastern Regional Fisheries Board
Bord Iascaigh Réigiúnach an Oirthir